CFA is SEIU Local 1983
Dear Colleagues,

There is truth to the saying that alone we can do so little, but together we can do so much.

In January 2018, we came together to show lawmakers what disinvestment in the CSU looked like. We created a pop-up art installation on the lawn of the Capitol, with more than 1,500 chairs to represent the thousands of qualified students who didn’t get into the California State University last year. It caught the attention of reporters attending Gov. Jerry Brown’s news conference, where he detailed a proposed budget that only included $92 million in additional funding for the CSU.

Throughout the spring, faculty and students testified in budget hearings and wrote thousands of messages to lawmakers about the need to reinvest in our university system. And on April 4, CFA hosted an event and rally that drew more than 1,000 faculty, students, staff, and allies to the Capitol to fight for the funding the CSU needed, and for so many years had gone without.

We were successful in helping secure an additional $364 million in funding for the CSU – funding that will provide increased access to thousands of students, stave off a tuition hike, secure more tenure-track jobs for faculty, and restore deteriorating buildings.

Proof positive that together, we are stronger.

Stand with us. Join CFA today: calfac.org/join.
