WERE YOU TURNED AWAY FROM THE CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY?

Did you get the grades?
Did you do the required courses in high school and/or community college?
Did you apply to go to a California State University campus and get turned down anyway?

We want to hear from you.

About 30,000 qualified California students are turned away from admission to the California State University every year. This has been going on for a long time, and if the state legislature and governor do not provide enough “enrollment growth” money in the state budget, tens of thousands of students will keep getting turned away.

The California Faculty Association will talk with members of the California State legislature to say “Fund the CSU!” so that you, and students like you, will get a place in our public university.

TELL US YOUR STORY.

Please include:
• If you were in high school or community college when you applied, which one was it?
• What CSU campus(es) did you apply to?
• What are you doing now?
