

Resolution to re-affirm the rights and interests of coaches in negotiations with the California State University

WHEREAS, the California Faculty Association is the exclusive collective bargaining representative for the California State University faculty, including professors, lecturers, librarians, counselors, and coaches; and

WHEREAS, the California Faculty Association represents approximately 700 coaches; and

WHEREAS, coaches are committed to solidarity in all aspects of the California Faculty Association mission statement, philosophies, and causes; and

WHEREAS, management of the California State University has consistently failed in considering the interests of coaches; and

WHEREAS, the California Faculty Association will defend all faculty against austerity measures taken by the California State University; and

WHEREAS, the Coaches Committee is now fully constituted and active in providing a voice for coaches within the California Faculty Association;

WHEREAS, the California Faculty Association recognizes the importance of representing the interests of coaches; therefore be it

RESOLVED, that the California Faculty Association is committed to continuing to promote the interests of coaches along with all faculty in negotiations with management.

Presented by the California Faculty Association Coaches Committee, October 2020