President's Report - Erma Jean Sims

Local Legislative Candidates Interview Results- Presenter: Elaine Newman (CFA Sonoma Political Action Chair)- We sent out candidate questionnaires and interviewed candidates for AD12, in which SSU is included. We need to have a discussion, vote on endorsement(s), and forward it to our statewide CFA PAC. Our endorsed candidate(s) can get money, and they get to publicize our endorsement. Options are: No endorsement, one endorsement, dual endorsements, or undecided. Discussion. Moved to endorse Sara Aminzadeh: Newman; 2nd: Byrne; none opposed; one abstention; passed

CFA Organizing Efforts & Actions Open Forum Discussion Session- Topic: CFA/SQE “No Harm Disarm/ Cops Off Campus Campaign” – Information Sharing, Organizing, and CFA Statewide SQE Actions- Summary of Equity Conference Presentation about CSU policing. February 8, 2022 Chancellor Castro Memo: <https://www.calfac.org/wp-content/uploads/2022/04/Feb-8-22-CSUCastro-memo-emergency-response-workgroup.pdf>. Management agreed to this memo instead of putting language into the contract. CFA statewide is planning a workgroup and they are encouraging campuses to move forward in parallel until the work merges. Next steps discussion:
*Membership education, *Informational email from Erma Jean as chapter president, *Classroom presentations, *Outreach to student government, *Research special collections in the library regarding establishment of police on campus, *Follow up with Judy Sakaki on Academic Senate request for bias and policing report, *Cleary report, *Follow up with statewide Council for Racial & Social Justice about what has been successful at other campuses. Goals discussion: *Elimination of cops on campus, *Reallocation of money to life-affirming efforts. Tactics discussion: *Resolutions in ASI and Academic Senate, *Town Halls with panel of speakers, *Testimonials, *Engage Residential Life.
