President's Message

Dear Colleagues,

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the 2023-2024 academic year in the California State University.

We have challenges and opportunities this year as we do our work to support and educate students, each other, and continue to produce excellent teaching, research, and service that makes the California State University one of the best university systems in the world.

This academic year continues with re-opener contract bargaining with CSU management, on Articles 20, 23, 31, and 37 (workload, paid leave, salary, and health and safety). Our bargaining position demands wages that keep pace with the cost of living and raise the salary floor for the most precarious and vulnerable faculty. Our proposals offer a vision for community well-being rooted in our anti-racism and social justice principles, safety on campus, adequate and humane paid parental leave, and workload relief. To achieve a fair contract, all of us must be united and prepared to act when needed. It is time to let CSU management know that we must be treated fairly in our workplaces.

Our work doesn't stop at the bargaining table. CFA members advocate for a system-wide budget to support the best learning conditions for students, and a dismantling of systemic inequity and oppression at every level of campus life.

The new CSU Chancellor, Dr. Mildred Garcia, begins her tenure on October 1. We look forward to collaborating with her, and we expect her to pay attention to our diverse and expert voices as she leads the CSU. We hope this is a new beginning for the CSU and for faculty, students, and staff, and an opportunity for all.

We must continue to address Title IX and its processes, procedures, enforcement, and outcomes on our campuses. Both the Cozen Report and the Legislative Audit of Title IX indicate systemic failures that must be addressed.

With CFA, faculty have a powerful voice to shape working conditions through bargaining and mobilizing for a strong contract. Together we will continue to win equitable contracts, enforce our rights, and enjoy our hard-fought protections. We invite you to work directly with your CFA chapter to get involved in the bargaining campaign along with anti-racism and social justice work on campus.

I am pleased and honored to have you as colleagues, and CFA is committed to supporting your work in the university.

In Union,
Charles Toombs, CFA President
Professor, San Diego State University
